Dear Senator DeConcini:

I am writing to you reference the rights of satellite receiver owners, of which I am one. Recently, the Mesa Tribune printed an article in the sports section reporting the stalled efforts of the National Football League and major T.V. networks in initiating pay per view efforts for NFL games. Even though I am not totally versed on this issue, I want to make my views very clear to you.

Any efforts to curtail viewing of sporting events, many of which are already held with some public subsidies, is obviously not fair play. My family of five has already been denied opportunities to share leisure time at America's ballparks because of the excessive costs associated with such time. Watching our favorite teams and players on free television has been expanded by cable T.V.: yet, we still
